

Questions to Ask During Your College Search

- How do I apply for admission? Common App?
- Is there an application fee?
- Is there an application deadline?
- What are the application requirements at your school?
- Do you have direct admission?
- When do you release admission decisions?
- How do you evaluate GPA?
- How do you evaluate ACT/SAT scores?
- What are the admission requirements for my major?
- How do you process AP/IB scores for college credit?
- How do you process dual credit courses for transfer credits at your school?
- What is your placement rate?
- What is your graduation rate?
- What academic support resources do you offer?
- What is the average class size?
- What is the student-to-faculty ratio?
- Who teaches courses? TAs (teaching assistants) vs. Faculty
- What campus visit opportunities do you offer?
- What scholarships do you have? What are the deadlines? How do I apply?
- Are scholarships stackable?
- What is the cost of attendance?

- What is the financial aid award timeline at your school?
- What is the average financial aid award?
- Are there payment plans? How do they work?
- Are there additional fees?
- Who is my assigned admission counselor/rep at your school?
- Do you have study abroad opportunities? How does that work? Costs?
- When is freshman/new student orientation?
- What is the on-campus housing policy?
- Are there any specific course requirements at your school?
(for example: Theology, World Language, etc.)
- What is the academic advising model at your school?
(Faculty, professional advisors, hybrid?)